howdy!

I'm a Graphic Designer and Visual Artist based in 'lil 'ol Rhode Island, looking to branch out and see the rest of the world. Between having my work featured in art exhibitions, the custom graphics & gifts business I built during COVID-19, and the artist's collective I've joined, my experiences and inner-drive have extensively prepared me to exceed creatively as well as in the workplace. I am currently searching for opportunities in the Arts industry that will fulfill my passion for community outreach and accessibility of the arts to all demographics, while also expanding my own clientele through art commission work and freelance projects.
